

Exit Ticket

Name: _____

You overhear another student in the bathroom get angry at a friend for leaving them out again. They make the comment, "There's no point any more in living like this."

What is your next step?

- a) Ask them if they are okay.
- b) Tell their friend to be nicer.
- c) Tell your teacher or school counselor right away.
- d) Mind your own business.

Exit Ticket

Name: _____

You overhear another student in the bathroom get angry at a friend for leaving them out again. They make the comment, "There's no point any more in living like this."

What is your next step?

- a) Ask them if they are okay.
- b) Tell their friend to be nicer.
- c) Tell your teacher or school counselor right away.
- d) Mind your own business.

Exit Ticket

Name: _____

You overhear another student in the bathroom get angry at a friend for leaving them out again. They make the comment, "There's no point any more in living like this."

What is your next step?

- a) Ask them if they are okay.
- b) Tell their friend to be nicer.
- c) Tell your teacher or school counselor right away.
- d) Mind your own business.

Exit Ticket

Name: _____

You overhear another student in the bathroom get angry at a friend for leaving them out again. They make the comment, "There's no point any more in living like this."

What is your next step?

- a) Ask them if they are okay.
- b) Tell their friend to be nicer.
- c) Tell your teacher or school counselor right away.
- d) Mind your own business.

