

Kelly White was born and raised in Houston, Texas. She attended the University of Texas at Austin on an academic scholarship and received a B.S. in Education. After graduating in 2002, Kelly began her career at Manor Middle School in KISD. There, she taught Language Arts for 10 years and was named Teacher of the Year in 2011. In 2012, Kelly transferred to Smith Middle School and went back to school herself to earn a M.Ed. in Curriculum and Instruction. In 2016, she accepted the position of Instructional Specialist at Charles Patterson Middle School where she hopes to promote student learning.

Kelly has been married to her husband for twelve years. In addition, Kelly loves reading and sports. She enjoys going to baseball and football games, watching dirt track racing, and traveling. She also appreciates a beautiful sunset and good glass of sweet tea.