

Mrs. Williams Bio

Mrs. Williams graduated from Killeen High School and then attended Southwestern University in Georgetown, Texas. After graduation, Mrs. Williams started teaching and coaching basketball at Nolan Middle School in Killeen. She soon accepted a position at Killeen High School where she taught AVID, German, and PE. She was also an assistant basketball coach at the high school for 4 years. In 2005, after receiving her Master's degree in Educational Administration, Mrs. Williams became the Head Girls' Basketball Coach at Killeen High. During her 12 years as head coach, the Lady Roo basketball program went to the playoffs 12 times, won 5 district championships, and in her final season went to the regional tournament and posted a 33-5 record. After the 2015-2016 school year, Mrs. Williams was given the opportunity to be an assistant principal at Charles E. Patterson Middle School where she is currently proudly serving.
