

Early College High School

Home-School Compact

School Year: 2024-2025

The faculty at Early College High School is committed to providing a quality education for all students and to recognizing the essential role of parents and the value of input. Our school staff enthusiastically makes the following commitments to you and your child. We ask that you join us in creating a partnership for academic excellence!

SCHOOL STAFF COMMITMENTS

To support achievement goals, the school staff commits to the following:

- Provide a high-quality curriculum and instructional program that meets the diverse needs of all students.
- Talk with parents at open house, curriculum nights, parent boot camps, orientation, and parent-teacher conferences about the curriculum, TSIA, ECHS and CTC policies and expectations.
- Inform parents of the instruction and interventions in place that will enable students to meet proficiency levels in core subjects.
- Provide a positive, safe, and effective learning environment for all students through consistent implementation of the school's behavior support plan.
- Offer meaningful parent/guardian engagement opportunities, including workshops, meetings, and events focused on student learning and well-being.
- Provide information for parents through webpages, Connect Ed., email, staff phone calls, conferences, and the weekly Roar Report.

To support effective, ongoing communication between the school and home, the school staff commits to the following actions:

- Introduce the home-school compact with parents at the initial parent/teacher conference and discuss it concerning their individual child's progress. Review the compact with the parent at least once more during the year.
- Maintain open two-way communication with parents/guardians regarding students' progress, school activities, and opportunities for involvement through (but not limited to): Newsletters Phone Calls, Emails, Quarterly Parent Nights, Progress Reports, and the Roar Report.
- Assist parents in understanding opportunities to volunteer.
- Assume positive intent in communication with students and families.

PARENT COMMITMENTS

To support achievement goals, we ask that parents commit to the following:

- Ensure that my scholar gets enough sleep each night, provides nutritious meals, and encourages regular exercise.
- Ensure that scholar attends school regularly and ready to learn with his/her resources and laptop charged.
- Talk with my child each day about school and homework; set high expectations for his or her academic achievement.
- Review HAC weekly to stay informed about our student's progress.
- Check scholar's AVID planner and Schoology/Blackboard every week.
- Support assignment completion and provide a quiet, conducive environment for studying at home.
- Attend school events, workshops, and meetings, and when appropriate, participate in decision-making and leadership opportunities at school.

To encourage effective, ongoing communication, we ask parents to commit to the following actions:

- Respond to emails, and phone calls, or be willing to participate in home visits by school staff.
- Initiate communication with school staff when there is a concern or question.
- Attend school events, meetings, and workshops and ask questions, share ideas with other parents, and offer suggestions for how the school can improve opportunities for student success.
- Assume positive intent in communication with teachers and staff. Volunteer our time and talents to support school initiatives and activities, whenever possible.

ECHS STUDENT COMMITMENTS

To support achievement goals, we ask that students commit to the following:

- Attend school regularly and punctually, ready to participate and learn.
- Complete assignments, participate in class, and study regularly to reinforce learning.
- Encourage my parents to support me in my education.
- Follow school rules, participate in classroom activities, and take responsibility for my learning.
- Complete all assignments, including homework, to the best of my ability.
- Respect teachers, classmates, and school property, and contribute positively to the school community.
- Strive for academic excellence, set goals, and take responsibility for our learning and growth.
- Attend tutoring as needed.

To support effective, ongoing communication, we ask that students commit to the following:

- Talk with my parent(s) about school each day.
- Share my AVID planner, Schoology and Blackboard communication and grades with my parents.
- Communicate with school staff and other students in a positive manner.
- Seek the support of my parents and school staff when I have questions about my learning or other concerns about the school.

To the best of my ability, I will carry through on the commitments set forth in this document.
